Disgraceful Disclosures.

By Associated Press.]
WHEATON, Ill., Jan. 3.—The State Board of Charities, by direction of the Governor, is investigating the manner of caring for the insane patients at the poor house. The evidence showed that two violently insane women are confined in zinc-lined cells with no clothes or other necessities; that the cells are cleaned only once or twice a month and the women bathed once a week by male attendants, there being no female help; that these women tore their clothes off and remained in the cells naked; that one had her hands tied behind her and took her food from a plate on the floor with her teeth like a dog. The managers say the place is not intended for the insane and they could do no better.

Latest Mexican News.

By Associated Press.]
CITY OF MEXICO, Jan. 3.—At Guichorri, Sonora, a band of Yaqui Indians were overtaken by the Eleventh Mexican Cavalry, when an encounter took place, in which the Indians lost several dead and wounded.

The influenza is on the increase; no deaths.

El Tiempo contains an editorial on the Government loan, negotiated in London, for the Tehuantepec Railway, claiming the same is a part of an English plan to have a port on the Gulf & Transcontinental Railroad, to offset American plans. The idea is hailed with great satisfaction.

American Style.

By Associated Press.]
NEW YORK, Jan. 3.—The hearing of the Cuban official arrested last night, charged with embezzlement, went over until to-morrow in consequence of the accused not having had time to see his counsel. The charge against Cortez is that he left Cuba, carrying with him $200,000 belonging to the city of Havana, and coupons taken from bonds valued at $500,000.

Brice's Man Wins.

By Associated Press.]
COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 3.—In the Senatorial contest it is reported that all the candidates for Speaker of the House have withdrawn in favor of Hytell, who is Brice's candidate. There is an unconfirmed rumor that the Democrats will seat Marquis for Lieutenant-Governor, and run Governor Campbell against Brice for Senator.

The Present Storm.

The storm which commenced yesterday afternoon abated about 9 p. m., after having added about eight inches to the former quantity. On the mountains between here and California there was a fall of several feet of new snow, which completely blocked the railroad, neither of the east-bound trains having arrived at the time of going to press, and it was not expected they will be here before midnight. This afternoon it commenced snowing again, with a prospect of continuing for some time.

Helia Blythe Snowbound.

In consequence of a snow blockade on the mountains the Helen Blythe troupe was unable to reach Reno this evening. The play advertised for to-night, "Mother's Love," will be presented to-morrow night, and all having seats secured will hold them for to-morrow evening.

VALUABLE PROPERTY.
A Mine which is a Good Thing to Camp by.
The Central Nevada says: Wm. Drescoll, with the assistance of his sons Richard and Hugh, have developed one of the very best mining properties in Gilens, having the mine well opened, showing large bodies of high grade ore, and is situated now so that he can enjoy the fruits of his many days of hard toil. When discovered, he broke down a car load of ore, ships it and gets from two to three thousand dollars in return. The property is of good value and no one is entitled to a good thing than its present owner. Mr. and Mrs. Drescoll with their children spent a few days in town and laid in a good supply of necessities for future development of the mines. Hugh is now sporting a fine horse and car, and is liable to make a dash on some of the belles of Battle Mountain.

RESTORED HER HEALTH.
For 25 years I suffered from boils, erysipelas and other blood affections, taking during that time great quantities of different medicines without giving me any perceptible relief. Friends induced me to try S. & S. It improved me from the start, and after taking several bottles, restored my health as far as I could hope for at my age, which is now seventy-five years.

Excited Condition of the Scotch Iron Market.

Chloroformed by Burglars.

By Associated Press.]
TRENTON, N. J., Jan. 3.—The dead body of Mrs. Kniffin, wife of Dr. Kniffin, was found on the floor of her bedroom this morning, and near by lay the unconscious figure of a young lady who had been visiting the family. Both had apparently been chloroformed. The deed is supposed to have been done by burglars.

Miss Purcell, the young lady boarding with the Kniffins, who was finally revived, said that during the night she was awakened by Mrs. Kniffin, who was screaming "Burglars are in the house." Miss Purcell sprang from the bed to call help, but was seized by a man who applied a drug to her face. Mrs. Kniffin was seized by another man who pressed the end of the bed-quilt, saturated with chloroform, to her nose. That was the last Miss Purcell remembered till resuscitated by the physicians. The whole house was in great confusion, every drawer being emptied and the furniture scattered about.

La Grippe Spreading.

By Cable and Associated Press.]
LONDON, Jan. 3.—Influenza is spreading among the London police force. It prevails especially among officers doing duty in the eastern part of the metropolis.

MEXICO, Jan. 3.—The influenza is prevailing to such an extent in this city that it has been found necessary to close the schools.

NEW YORK, Jan. 3.—To-day is balmy with sunshine, such as was never seen before at this time of the year. The deaths to-day number 221, against 125 yesterday and 165 Wednesday. This is something unprecedented at this time of the year. Pneumonia, bronchitis and consumption show an increase over the standard. The number of policemen reported sick is 357, showing a steady increase. The increase in the number of deaths is attributed to la grippe and the diseases which follow that malady.

Lost Schooner—American Vessels Seized.

By Associated Press.]
NEW YORK, Jan. 3.—The Portuguese schooner Keluria, which left this port for Maderia on September 7th, is probably lost. She was commanded by Captain Maurice France and had a crew of nine men besides five passengers.

Another vessel flying the American flag has been seized by the Colombian gunboat Lapopa. Advice received by Shepp & Co. of this city say their vessel, Fredrick L. Schepp, has been seized while calling for coconuts on the San Blas coast. A dispatch from Washington says the State Department has but little information in regard to the seizures recently made by the Colombian Government, but full particulars are expected daily.

Peter Will Soon Return.

By Cable and Associated Press.]
LONDON, Jan. 3.—Peter Jackson has sent a cable to the United States announcing his acceptance of the challenge of John L. Sullivan to fight for £1,000 a side. He will sail for New York on January 15th.

By Cable and Associated Press.]
ROME, Jan. 3.—While King Humbert was returning from a hunting trip to-day he fell from his horse and was somewhat bruised. He remounted, however, and rode home.

An Excited Iron Market.

By Associated Press.]
GLASGOW, Jan. 3.—Much excitement prevails in the iron market. Scotch warrants have advanced to 66s, the highest point reached since the boom set in.

A Stranded Steamer.

By Cable and Associated Press.]
LONDON, Jan. 3.—No lives were lost by the stranding of the Italian steamer Persia on the Island of Corsica. The vessel is still aground with the crew aboard.

A Difficult Undertaking.

By Cable and Associated Press.]
MADRID, Jan. 3.—The Ministry has resigned and Sagasta will attempt to form a new cabinet on the basis that he will reconcile the various Liberal groups.

Harrison on Silver.

By Associated Press.]
NEW YORK, Jan. 3.—A Washington special says the President has made up his mind about Secretary Windom's recommendation, that the Government accept silver bullion and issue certificates therefor at the market rate, the certificates to serve as currency. Harrison goes even further than Windom in his approval of the project. He is impressed with its economic principle as sound, believes in its beneficial effect upon the prosperity of the country and regards it as a brilliant step towards the determination of the silver problem. So much he did not hesitate to say, and there is but little doubt that he will express this opinion in a communication to Congress at an early date, or he may determine to make his opinion known in some other way.

A bill embodying the recommendation of the Secretary will be submitted to Congress very soon, and is likely to be offered simultaneously in both Houses. Its fate in the House of Representatives is problematic. There is little doubt but that a majority of the Republican Senators and some of the Democratic members of the Senate favor the bill and it is likely to first pass that body.

Canadian School Matters.

By Associated Press.]
NEW YORK, Jan. 3.—A Toronto special says the separate school election for trustees, which took place on Wednesday, is causing much comment in Canada. The Catholic clergy were opposed to the use of the ballot for the election of trustees for their schools, and all who offered themselves for election on the ballot platform were defeated. Several priests were retained as trustees, defeating the men who favored the ballot. Against the return of one of these (Father Gibbons), his defeated opponent entered a protest on the grounds of undue influence by the priests. The papers say the voters in this election were under as complete a system of pressure and terrorism as any peasant ever was.

Two Grades of Gambling.

By Associated Press.]
CHICAGO, Jan. 3.—A blow at grain corners from a new direction was made to-day in a suit begun by Lamson & Co., who ask that Boyden & Co. be compelled to disclose all of their transactions in the corner in No. 2 corn in November, and to make good a loss of $40,000 sustained by the complainants, who were prevented by the corner from filling legitimate contracts.

A Broken Shaft.

SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 3.—A dispatch from Bowers' Landing, on the coast north of this port, states that the steamer State of California, which is three days overdue here, was off that place at 8 o'clock this morning with her shaft broken. A tug has been sent from San Francisco to Bowers' to tow the steamer here.

The accident happened on Monday afternoon, and since that time the steamer has been proceeding slowly under sail. All on board are safe.

A Painful Fall.

By Associated Press.]
BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Jan. 3.—The unfinished trestle on the Briarfield, Bloor & Birmingham Railroad fell yesterday morning, carrying down twenty-five carpenters who were at work on the structure. David J. Webb and Carl Clark were killed and twenty others injured. Several of the injured may die.

In a Precarious Condition.

By Associated Press.]
WASHINGTON, Jan. 3.—The Star says that Congressman W. D. Kelly of Pennsylvania has probably appeared on the floor of the House for the last time. He is suffering from a virulent cancer in the throat, and is too weak to be moved from his apartments in the Riggs House.

De Lesseps Ill.

By Cable and Associated Press.]
PARIS, Jan. 3.—De Lesseps is slightly indisposed.

The Grave Gets Tired Yawning.

Seemingly, for certain wretched invalids who totter feebly along, though always looking as if they were going to die, but omitting to do it. They dry up, wither, dwindle away finally, but in the meantime, never having robust health, know nothing of the physical enjoyment, the zest of that existence to which they cling with such remarkable tenacity. They are always to be found trying to mend by tinkering at themselves with some trashy remedy, tonic or "pick me up" to give a fillip to digestion or "help the liver." If such misguided folks would resort and adhere to Hostetter's Stomach Bitters they would be well with them. This aperient invigorant supplies the stamina that the feeble require, by permanently reinforcing digestion and assimilation. It overcomes nervousness, insomnia, malaria, kidney complaints, biliousness, constipation, rheumatism, and neuralgia.

South Carolina Negroes Denounce Recent Murders.

Sheep Men Being Heard.

By Associated Press.]
WASHINGTON, Jan. 3.—Before the House Committee on Ways and Means this morning Carter of Montana spoke in relation to sheep husbandry, particularly on the eastern slope of the Rocky Mountains.

Shepherd, a wool-grower of Texas, was the next witness.

After some remarks by Walsh of Missouri Hon. W. M. Lawrence of Ohio read a statement sent by a representative of the National Wool-growers' Association. He said the wool-growers generally believed that sound policy required the imposition of such a duty on so-called carpet wool as would enable American wool-growers to produce all, or nearly all, the wool required for consumption in the United States, shutting out foreign importations and giving the American wool-growers the privilege of supplying all the carpet wool required for consumption. At the conclusion of his testimony the committee adjourned.

Meeting of South Carolina Negroes.

By Associated Press.]
CHARLESTON, Jan. 3.—Pursuant to a call issued a few days ago by prominent negroes in Charleston for a meeting of the leading colored men of the State to discuss the recent wholesale lynching in Barnwell, a representative gathering of colored men was called to order last night in this city.

Resolutions were adopted condemning the taking of human life other than in vindication of the honor and integrity of the State.

Members of the race were advised to remain quiet and let the proper authorities vindicate the law.

It was denied that there was the slightest danger of an insurrection of the negroes in Barnwell or any other place in the State, and the negroes are strongly advised to abandon Barnwell county and other lawless sections and move to other parts of the State where the laws are observed.

Liquor Dealers Caught.

By Associated Press.]
CINCINNATI, Jan. 3.—The premises of the Globe Company, wholesale liquor dealers, were searched upon the complaint of an agent for a certain brand of liquor, who alleged that this company was counterfeiting his brand. The result was the discovery not only of counterfeiting this brand, but of nearly every other well-known brand. In some cases the cases for shipment were initiated, and, to protect them from observation in transit, were provided with plain outer cases.

Bridge Blown Down.

By Associated Press.]
SPRINGFIELD, Mass., Jan. 3.—The fifth span of the iron bridge being built between Holyoke and South Hadley Falls was blown down this morning, carrying down three men a distance of 70 feet into the river and killing one of them. The other two were hurt. Twenty-five other workmen were warned in time to escape.

Unable to Stand an Investigation.

By Associated Press.]
PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 3.—Willis Gaylord, for years a heavy manipulator of railroad securities and an organizer of railroad corporations, committed suicide last night or this morning in a cell in the county prison. He was awaiting trial on a charge of fraud in negotiating railroad bonds.

A Railroad Porters' Strike.

By Cable and Associated Press.]
DUBLIN, Jan. 3.—The porters on the Dublin, Wicklow & Wexford railway have struck for an advance in wages. Trains are running irregularly. The company will endeavor to engage men to take their places. The porters are supported by the employees of other lines.

Proctition Venetiated.

Listening to the denunciations of the policy of protection of home industries, so persistently employed by free-trade advocates, the unposted voter might readily infer that protection was a mere experiment, unsanctioned by practical statesmen of other countries, and without warrant in the experience of nations older than ours.

The fact is, England enforced the most rigid protective legislation known to history during a period of four hundred years, and changed her policy but forty years ago, when, confronted with the fact that there were more people on her little island than could be fed from its products, she believed herself strong enough to compel other nations to adopt a policy which would make her the worshiper of the world. In urging this step, says the American Economist, Cobden promised that in twenty years all the leading nations of the world would adopt a similar revenue policy; but, despite the efforts to that end of emissaries who have persistently worked in colleges, in commerce and through the press, England is to-day seemingly as far from the fulfillment of her ambition to dictate the tariffs of other nations as she was forty years ago. All the other leading governments of the world adhere to protection of the industries of their people, some of them (notably Germany) adding largely to their import duties in recent years.

While the overwhelming majority of statesmen throughout the world are thus vindicating the wisdom of protection by engraving it into the laws of their governments, it is fashionable for the orators without knowledge of government beyond that acquired in lecturing a class of undergraduates and with business experience limited to receiving for salaries and paying for living expenses, to decant upon the beneficence of unrestricted competition between the peoples of all nations, however divergent their conditions. Which are likely to prove the best judges of a sound national policy?

EVEN in Baltimore, where political chicane has been at the bottom of more fraud and devilry relating to the ballot-box than can be recorded, the people have resolved upon ballot reform. The Maryland Ballot Reform League has been organized. It is composed most largely of Democrats. They have drawn up a bill, which the next Legislature will be asked to enact into law, that establishes a system much like the Australian. An improvement upon the old plan is for the safety of illiterates, who may have to call upon the election officers to read the ballots to them. The new device is to print a symbol or vignette over each of the tickets, to designate their political complexion. Instead of all the candidates of all parties being ranged in a single list on the ballot, each political ticket is to be printed complete, but all of them side by side on a single sheet. All this matter of the method of arranging candidates' names concerns detail only, and is very little cared for by the friends of reform, so long as the secrecy of the ballot is insured, and the identity of the voter with the ballot after its deposit is not disclosed, and the booth system is retained.

By the way la gripe is taking hold of the police of the large cities of both Europe and America, it seems, says the Sacramento Bee, that they have caught something at last.

Three Chapters that Contain a Requel.

There are three chapters in the "Family Physician" which are worthy of special mention, namely, those on "Diseases of Women," "Diseases of Infants" and "Care of the Sick." The first of these is a model of its kind. It is chaste in language, contains no disgusting pictures for children to happen on and be over-curious about, and taken altogether is the most practical, sensible and straight-forward treatise upon this delicate subject that has ever been printed.

This chapter alone is worth many times the cost of the book to every mother, even if it had to be purchased at its regular price. The other chapters referred to are equally well written and valuable. See "Our Plan" on 4th page.

FULLY ENDORSED.

The "Gazette's" Premium a First-Class Medical Work.

Having examined the advance sheets of the work entitled "Our Family Physician," I can say that I find it accurate in its descriptions of diseases and reliable in its therapeutical department.

H. F. COOK, M. D.,
Professor of Theory and Practice,
Hahnemann Medical College.

I hereby certify that I have examined a work entitled "Our Family Physician," and find it to be correct in its diagnosis, and in my opinion, worthy of the confidence of the public. H. S. HANN, M. D.

I have examined the advance sheets of "Our Family Physician." It gives me pleasure to recommend the work as correct in its mode of treatment of disease, and it deserves wide circulation.

J. K. O'K. M. D.,
Professor in Burnett's Medical College, Chicago.

After examining the publication "Our Family Physician," I can fully endorse the opinions expressed of its merits by the above gentlemen. R. A. GUNN, M. D.,
Professor of the Burnett Medical College.

The book contains a valuable chapter of symptoms, which will aid wonderfully in diagnosing diseases, and the proper remedies are given for Allopathic, Homeopathic, Eclectic, Hydropathic and Herbal treatments.

We have a number of the books on hand, and will invite inspection.

stockholders of the First National Bank of Reno, Nevada, will be held at its banking office in Reno, Nevada,

On Tuesday, January 14th, 1890,

At 2 p. m., for the election of Directors to serve for the ensuing year, and for the transaction of such other business as may come before the meeting.

CHAS. T. BENDER, Secretary.

Reno, Nev., Dec. 14, 1889.

Grand Closing Out Sale!

— AT THE —

OPERA HOUSE

DRY GOODS STORE.

RENO, - - - NEVADA

HAVING purchased more goods than I can sell at private sale, therefore, between this date and March 1st, I have decided to sell at auction

$15,000 Worth of my Present Stock!

Sale to commence

MONDAY

JANUARY 6TH,

At 2 o'clock and 7 p. m., and continue until the amount of $15,000 is sold.

My Goods Are all of the Best Quality

And will be sold to the Highest Bidder for Cash.

I will sell on each afternoon at 2 p. m.,

DRESS GOODS,

SILKS, and

SATINS,

And at 7 p. m. I will sell

Blankets, Gents' Underwear, Men's, Boys' Boots & Shoes

AND CLOTHING.

Remember, these goods were all purchased with the intention of being sold at private sale, but on account of the low prices of beef, mutton, hay, etc., I have concluded to do as the ranchers have been compelled to do; viz:

To take what I can get and make the most of it.

So do not purchase a dollar's worth of dry goods until you see what prices they will bring at auction.

JOTTINGS.

The Arcade is where you can always obtain a first-class meal at any hour of the night or day.

Try one of E. C. Leadbetter's "Our Taste" hams and his boneless bacon, his pickled pigs feet and fresh pork lard.

For the best oak and walnut furniture, patronize E. C. Sessions' who has put his wares down to San Francisco retail prices.

Before your children commence going to school again see that they are supplied with the kind of books sold by C. J. Brookins.

The Riverside Hotel is where you can always find a good light room, a comfortable bed and as fine meals as can be had anywhere.

It is never too late in the year to present those whom you care to please with one of C. A. Thurston's autograph or photograph albums.

At any time in the day between 11 A. M. and 2 P. M. a hot soup lunch can always be had at George Becker's Granite Saloon, also both Pacific and Fredericksburg beer.

Instead of wallowing your way through the snow on your way to your noon meal, drop in at J. J. Becker's Chicago saloon where you can always find a hot lunch.

Croup Can be Prevented.

We want every mother to know that croup can be prevented. There is no question about this; as it has been done in thousands of cases, and you may depend upon it that when a child takes the croup, it is owing to the negligence of its parents. True croup never appears without due and timely warning; a few hours, or a day before the attack, the child becomes hoarse. This hoarseness is the first indication of croup, and is a sure sign that croup is to follow, unless promptly and properly treated. The free use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy as directed with each bottle, under the heading "To prevent croup" will dissipate all symptoms of the disease. For sale by Osburn & Shoemaker.

Electric Bitters.

This remedy is becoming so well known and so popular as to need no special mention. All who have used Electric Bitters the same song of praise. A purer medicine does not exist and it is guaranteed to do all that is claimed. Electric Bitters will cure all diseases of the liver and kidneys, will remove pimples, boils, salt rheum and other affections caused by impure blood. Will drive malaria from the system and prevent as well as cure all malarial fevers. For cure of Headache, Constipation and Indigestion try Electric Bitters. Entire satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded. Price, 50 cents, and $1 per bottle at Hodgkinson's drug store.

Is Consumption Incurable?

Read the following. Mr. C. H. Morris, Newark, Ark., says: "Was down with Abcess of Lungs, and friends and physicians pronounced me an incurable consumptive. Began taking Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, am now on my third bottle, and able to oversee the work on my farm. It is the best medicine ever made." Jesse Middlewart, Decatur, Ohio, says: "Had it not been for Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption I would have died of lung troubles; was given up by doctors; am now in best of health." Try it. Sample bottles free at Hodgkinson's drug store.

Among the incidents of childhood that stand out in bold relief, as our memory reverts to the days when we were young, none are more prominent than those of sickness. The young mother, in the midst of her troubles, that it was Chamberlain's Cough Remedy cured her of the croup, and in turn administered it to her own offspring and always with the best success. For sale by Osburn & Shoemaker.

The Best There Is.

A new typewriter has been invented by the party who invented half of the Remington and all of the Caligraph. It has no ribbon, no wooden bars, but is all steel, prints true and without any blur. It costs an even hundred dollars, and is worth two of any other machine. It prints better, wears longer, is easier to learn and works faster, besides other recommendations. C. A. BRAGO, Agent.

ATTEMPTED SUICIDE.

Frank Craven Becomes Insane While in Jail.

The Carson Tribune of the 2d inst. says: Frank Craven, the well-known teamster, sentenced to the County Jail on Monday for five days for drawing a deadly weapon and disturbing the peace, attempted suicide by butting his head against the stone cell wall this morning. Craven has shown so many signs of insanity since being incarcerated that Sheriff Ulrick made complaint, and he was to be examined this morning as to his sanity by Drs. Lee and Guion. Having refused to put on his pantaloons, Deputy Sheriff Pine induced Craven's son to go into the jail with him, in hopes that Frank would permit the boy to put on the pants. They found him lying on the bed in an unconscious condition with blood issuing from his right temple. Blood was also found on the wall near the cell door, indicating that he had butted his head against the stone wall. Drs. Lee and Guion were summoned and from partial examination gave it as their opinion that the skull was fractured and death would ensue. He was removed to his home, where a more thorough examination was made and the skull found fractured. It took three hours before it can be definitely determined whether death will end Craven's sufferings or not. It was only a few minutes before being discovered in the unconscious condition that Craven remarked to prisoner Meadows "that if those men were going to hang him, he came in the cell he would but his brains out." From appearances Craven butted his head in one cell and walked out and into another cell, repeating the operation. It occurred about 10:30 o'clock, and none of the jail inmates saw the attempted self-destruction or heard any noise.

Craven was run over by a fire engine about a year ago and has frequently shown signs of insanity since, probably induced from injuries received.

McKISSICK'S OPERA HOUSE.

"A Mother's Love" To Be Presented To Night.

The Omaha Bee says: "Miss Helen Blythe is a genuine American girl, possessing many personal charms and is a natural born actress, as was fully illustrated last night by her portrayal of Edith Gordon, in a 'Mother's Love.' The character is intensely emotional throughout, and requires hard study and fine acting to keep up its strength and intensity without making its rendition unnatural. Miss Blythe succeeded in doing this admirably, enchainning the attention and interest of her audience during the entire play. She won many friends last night who will always be happy to welcome her to Columbus in her role as the playhouse. Mr. Joseph F. Brien, who is, by the way, the author of the play, made a perfect Allen Gordon, and the character suits him equally as well as that of the 'Silver King.' To be presented at McKissick's Opera House this evening. Tomorrow night, 'Cora, the Croole.'"

PERSONAL.

E. Ferris of Long Valley is in town. Charley Wallace of Eureka is at the Bay.

Peter French, the cattle man, arrived in town last night.

University Regent George arrived on this morning's express.

The Journal says Frank Bell is not a candidate for State Controller.

James Miller, the Long Valley rancher, arrived in town last evening.

Frank M. Rowland, John Doyle and Charley Clark came in from Long Valley last night.

J. H. Job, one of the victims of Dr. Beiber, Nevada's Commissioner to the Paris Exposition, returned to Winnemucca on the 2d inst.

J. A. Fitzgerald, who for several weeks has been visiting Mohave Valley relatives, returned to Reno last evening greatly improved in health.

Ex-Governor Kinkead and wife expect to leave Carson in a short time, to take up their residence with Miss Kibby, a niece of the Governor, at the National Capital.

A COFFIN TRUST.

Organized by San Francisco Undertakers. The formation of a coffin trust, suggested some months ago by undertaker Brown of Virginia City, has been consummated in San Francisco. The by-laws prohibit the employment of "stool pigeons" to lie in wait about the premises where inmates are fatally ill for the purpose of being on hand to snatch the corpse to prepare it for interment the moment the breath has departed from the body. The "trust" also specifies that not more than 99 per cent. of the total assets of families, where deaths occur, shall be demanded in payment for funeral expenses and that $800 is sufficient to charge for an imitation rosewood coffin—the original cost of which did not exceed $2.50.

Special Rates.

Special rates have been secured for all Reno parties desiring to witness the William Keogh-Unknown mill at Piper's Opera House, in Virginia City, on the evening of January 4, 1890. Round-trip tickets—to leave on the local train Saturday and return next day—are $3. There will be a chance to see two events, as Reno's light-weight, Tom Speakman, will box any Virginia City or Carson light-weight four rounds, Marguis of Queensberry rules, for $50. [Enterprise and Journal copy.]

First-Class Goods at Auction.

C. W. Booton is compelled to sell his large stock of goods to the amount of $15,000, and has concluded to sell at auction until that amount is realized. His great opening sale will commence on Monday next. Read his ad. and profit by what he says.

Meeting called.

President Newlands of the State Board of Trade has called a meeting of the Executive Committee for tomorrow at 1 o'clock. All members should be present.

SAN FRANCISCO

DANGER.

So says Chief Scannell, and with his long and varied experience in matters pertaining to conflagrations, we naturally give him the benefit of the doubt. We, as tax-payers, property-owners and citizens, are deeply interested in this impending and sure-to-come danger. We hate to feel that when we leave our cosy homes in the morning that there is any such thing as their being in ruins when we return. The cry is, more hose, more engines, more men that can be enlisted and paid to remain at the engine-houses of the fire department, which means more strength to aid in putting down this terrible conflagration when it does come. Now, strength is what every thing has to have to do service in a greater or less degree. Man acquires this much-needed strength by various means. Exercise, plenty of fresh air, good food, eaten at regular intervals, and the use of the GREAT SIERRA KIDNEY AND LIVER CURE. A man may look ever so healthy and think himself in the best of conditions and yet have diseased kidneys. Anatomical science teaches that the kidneys are so poorly supplied with nerves of sensation that when disease first starts they can sound no alarm. For that reason it behooves us to be very watchful, and by the use of the never-failing remedy, THE GREAT SIERRA KIDNEY AND LIVER CURE, keep these important organs of existence in perfect health.

All druggists sell these valuable goods. Take no other.

The way to make money is to save it. Hood's Sarsaparilla is the most economical medicine to buy, as it is the only medicine of which can truly be said, "100 doses one dollar." Do not take any other preparation if you have decided to buy Hood's Sarsaparilla.

MONO CO. CAL. ITEMS.

Wild Geese—Deep Snow—Lost His Turkey etc.

The snowshoe expert is a handy man around camp just now.

The Homer Index of the 28 th ult says: Lots of wild geese down at Mono lake.

The Index man has been unable to get out of the house for two weeks, and is compelled to depend upon the snowshoe brigade for many favors.

May Lundy miners have not yet resumed work, fearing the enormous banks of snow on the mountains above the mine; nor have the men returned to the Erie tunnel, for similar reasons.

Andy Thompson is running a tunnel into the hill back of his house to cut a vein which affords good prospects in free gold. Some ten years ago a number of Mexicans found a pocket containing several thousand dollars in that vicinity. The ledge was not more than an inch thick, but very rich.

Harry Summerville started on last Monday to make the Golden Prince mine by way of the Gorilla, in a blinding blizzard—a most dangerous and foolhardy venture. As nothing has since been heard of him, it is presumed that he got there or he didn't.

In the latter case his refrigerated corpse will be stumbled over next summer by some wandering prospector. It is to be hoped, however, that he got through all right, as the Coroner inquest on disarticulated bones disturbs the equality of a camp.

A big California lion invaded the Index office Tuesday night and got away with our Christmas turkey. The tracks of the critter were ten inches long. He entered by ripping boards off the back side of the house, which let in a ton or two of snow for us to shovel out. The noble bird and the sneaking lion must have had a helluva time, as the printing shop was a total wreck next morning; the stove was bung down in one corner and the intricate machinery of the press twisted out of kilter, to say nothing of the "pi" and feathers that lay around in distracting profusion.

A SERIOUS BLUNDER.

A Lady Nearly Prostrated by a Patent Medicine.

A lady well-known in the Western Addition has been a great sufferer for years with indigestion and dyspepsia. Struck with the testimonials praising Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla, she sent for a bottle. The druggist, not having it, talked them into taking another sarsaparilla. As the leading sarsaparilla use mineral blood purifiers, the effect of the emptying of liddle of poison into a stomach already distressingly delicate was disastrous, almost prostrating her before the mistake was rectified. She then called upon Mrs. Fowler, of 327 Ellis street, whose name was among those cured by Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla. Mrs. Fowler said it was true that it had cured her. Again reassured, the vegetable compound was sent for and she got better. The gentle action of its vegetable stimulants upon the liver, kidneys and digestive organs, and its warm stomach tonics, were the very things needed, and she began improving and was her old self within a fortnight. This sounds like fiction, but the names can be given if necessary.—San Francisco Examiner.

Advice to Mothers.

Mrs. Winklow's SORTHING SYRUP should always be used for children's teething. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for diarrhoea. Twenty-five cents a bottle. 19

HOME HINTS AND HELPS.

—A pillow sham, which may be described as unique if nothing else, is made of scraps of lace insertions and edgings put together after the manner of crazy patchwork, and finished with a lace ruffle.

—Cream Pudding.—Mix half a cup of sugar and one grated lemon, beat six eggs to a froth, mix a pint of flour and a pint of milk, stir in a pint of cream; bake in a buttered dish; serve with lemon sauce.

—The main requirements for an invalid, who is seeking health, or animal or mental enjoyment, is a warmth of air without much exercise, and a good cuisine. The influence or change under these circumstances is very marked.

—It is very unsafe for any one but a skillful physician to dispense, or even keep on hand, dangerous remedies. If any member of a household is ill enough to require these, he is ill enough to call in a physician, and no one else should administer strong or deadly drugs.

—Spiced Cranberries.—Wash and carefully pick over four pounds of cranberries, add to them one pint of vinegar, four pounds of sugar, one-half a cupful of molasses, one teaspoonful of cinnamon and one of cloves, half a teaspoonful of allspice; boil one hour.—Boston Herald.

—For the tomato omelet prepare a plain omelet, and just before turning one-half over the other place in the center three tablespoonfuls of nicely seasoned stewed tomatoes; then, when the omelet is turned out in the center of the platter, pour around a nicely-made tomato sauce.

—Oyster Chowder.—Take three very thin slices of salt pork, two small onions and three potatoes, and boil until nearly done. Soak three dozen crackers, put four dozen oysters in the saucepan with the pork, add a quart of milk, the crackers, a little salt and pepper, boil one minute.—Ladies' Home Journal.

—Stuffed Sweet Potatoes.—Wash, boil tender in boiling water, cut a slice from one side of each one, scoop out nearly all the interior, mash it with pepper, salt and butter, or omit the butter, using instead some cooked bacon, fat ham or sausage meat; return this forcemeat to the potatoes, replace the slices first cut off, put the potatoes in the oven to heat for ten minutes and serve, them hot.

—Slippery elm is a valuable emollient, more so even than gum arabic. Any one living in a region where this tree grows should try to keep a bundle of the bark always on hand. Dissolved in water it forms a soothing mucilage, excellent for teething babies, or for any one suffering with inflamed throat or stomach. It is also very soothing when applied externally to inflamed eyes.—Household.

—Lemon Custard.—Take the juice and grated rind of one or two lemons, four eggs, one and one-half cups of sugar, two-thirds of a cup of water, two teaspoons of corn starch; beat the yolks of the eggs well, then add the sugar, corn starch, and lastly the water; stir and put into pie plates. When baked spread over them the whites well-beaten with four tablespoonfuls of pulverized sugar; then let it brown.

NEW SUBMARINE BOAT.

A Recent Invention of the French for War at Sea.
The Goubet, the name of the boat built by a private firm at the expense of the State, is a little boat 5.60 meters long and 1.53 meters broad. It can hold two men. The body of the craft is cast in bronze of a single piece, and can, therefore, bear a very high pressure. It is moved by electricity, which in case of failure can be replaced by oars. Completely armed it weighs 6,000 kilograms (about 12,000 pounds), and can, therefore, be transported easily everywhere.

The electricity, as may be safely assumed, is obtained from accumulators in the boat, but it seems that the propelling force can also be transferred to the boat from land or from a ship accompanying the Goubet by means of a wire, which would naturally considerably hamper the movements of the submarine craft. The stores of compressed air are said to last for twenty-four hours, and can, by an automatic arrangement, be redistributed that the state of the air in the ship is constant. The boat was immersed for eight hours at a depth of 10 meters with two sailors in it, and these latter experienced not the slightest inconvenience during that period. As a special advantage it is claimed for the boat that it can at a word of command sink any depth, greatest probably 10 meters, remain there and change its position at will. The sinking and rising in the water, it is said, can be executed with the greatest regularity, which is not the case apparently with the Spanish submarine boat Peral and the other French boat Gymnote.—Cologne Gazette.

Novelties for Evening Wear.

The newest novelty for evening wear is the sequin net. The Eastern coin is imitated by a bone counter, and these are strung together with silk on a piece of net twenty-seven inches wide. Then it is arranged on the front of a skirt to form a petticoat. Of course gold-colored sequins are the most popular, but they are made in all shades. When the wearer moves there is a great rustling and rattling. But then rustling and rattling are not objected to. A sequin fringe is also used for ornamenting the bodice. And it would seem that we are coming back again to the old-fashioned silk fringe. But only the best people have taken it up, and they are having silk fringe expressly dyed for trimming their different gowns. It is altogether too feeble for the illiterate to notice. Another new dress trimming is worked out in delicate floral designs with a material that looks like mosses.—Pall Mall Gazette.

Young Women in Alaska.

In Alaska a girl is ready for society as soon as she enters her teens. It does not require many years in that country for a girl to grow up. The dress of the average Stickeen river maiden is not very elaborate. A plain cotton garment, long and loose, envelops her person; and a Turkish bath-towel is wound about her head. When she goes out a blanket of bright colors is thrown around her shoulders. The wife of a missionary in that section says the young women often go barefooted, but that after they see the boots and shoes of white women their great desire is to have a pair.

BILLED THE TOMBSTONES.

An Advance Agent Secures a Lively Welcome for His Company.

"It was neither more nor less than a dramatic debauch."

The disengaged Heavy Man buried his mustache in a beer mug for a moment, and then continued:

"You are all familiar, of course, with tales of people who go on tremendous sprees every few months. These sprees are lurid while they last, but once ended the drunkard resumes his normal condition as a sober, respectable citizen. Well, I have been out with a company whose manager is subject to 'periodicals,' not of intoxication, but of insane ambition to 'run a show.' His name is F—, and he accumulates the money he squanders on the road as a Philadelphia real-estate agent. Our party was got together in this city by an old actor who had become the owner of a play resembling 'Zo Zo, the Magic Queen,' in its details. Because of his long experience behind the footlights the ancient Thespian, who was both steward and proprietor, put his name in big letters on the bills and added this quotation: 'In my time I have done the State some service.' As a result wherever we played during the first week out the audiences and the papers assumed that he was an ex-convict who blazoned his shame for advertising purposes. Business was very bad and when we opened on Saturday night at Nashua, N. H., only 817 had gone into the box office. We couldn't stay over Sunday, pay hotel bills and get back to New York on that day, and what little was left of the start's capital, but our employer was full of resource. He ordered every one to pack his luggage and be ready to leave on the nine p. m. train. Then he bought a decayed fish and hired a bootblack for a quarter to take it into the gallery, and in the middle of the second act throw it at the leading lady. The fish was thrown, the curtain went down, and the star stepped out to protest against the 'outrage.' By the time he had quit talking we were in the depot. He joined us just as the train started. When the audience went away I don't know."

Well, in New York our employer met F— and dumped the whole outfit on him—contracts, scenery actors and drama. F—decided on a Southern tour, and we gradually worked down to the Gulf, not playing to much business, but getting salaries regularly, for awhile at least. The crash came at a town about fifty miles from Mobile. We got off the train at three in the afternoon, and were met by a delegation of citizens whose spokesman told us the only thing undecided was whether we should be lynched or simply tarred and feathered. Kettles and ropes were both at hand, and as our hosts all carried arms, the prospect was not a pleasant one. To say we were astonished but feebly expresses the situation. We had never been in the town before, and could imagine no way by which we could have incurred such demonstrative ill will. F—managed to get in a word or so and asked an explanation. Then it came out that our advance agent was running the Jim-jams close race, and that, not content with billing the town, he had gone out the previous evening and covered the tombstones and monuments in the Confederate soldiers' cemetery with three-sheet posters. That was why the people were mad. They awoke to find the records of their heroic dead plastered over with gaudy pictures of young women in tights, and they immediately knocked in the head of a tar barrel and waited for us. After a deal of talking we got away, but they caught our advance agent that night."

"What became of him?"
"I don't know. We never stopped to inquire. The experience sobered us up, and F— took an account of stock. He figured that he had dropped $1,500 and decided to quit managerial business for awhile. He bought us tickets to New York, sent us home and here we are."—N. Y. Sun.

AUTOMATIC FOG SIGNAL.

Electricity Sounds the Steam Whistle and Records the Result.

A new fog-signaling apparatus has lately been perfected in England which is of sufficient merit to attract the attention of all those interested in the saving of life and property at sea. It calls into use electricity, which admits of the signals being automatically worked and at the same time records every signal as it is given on a band of graduated paper. This paper forms a complete register of the signals, and is documentary evidence in case of dispute as to whether or not a vessel was signaling when a collision occurred. The apparatus consists of a single switch which is placed on the vessel's bridge, so that the signaling can be controlled by the officer on watch. When it is desired to blow the signal whistle or to begin the automatic signaling, whatever its nature may be, the lever is turned to the "under way" notch if the vessel be moving, and the electric current at once begins working the valve of the steam whistle at regular intervals, conforming to what the law specifies. Should the vessel be at anchor the switch is turned to "at anchor," and the bell is rung in the same way. The register consists of the band of paper properly subdivided and moved along by clock-work. A traveling pointer, actuated by an electro-magnet, picks the paper at every sound of the bell or whistle. The signaling can also be made at will entirely independent of the automatic mechanism by simply pressing a button which closes the circuit leading to the bell or whistle.—N. Y. Herald.

THE THIBETAN WOMAN.

An Independent and Buxom Dame, Well-Known and Sturdy.

A point to be noticed here is the freedom with which women of all grades go about from place to place; in the streets, in the vaulted entries which give access to every dwelling house. The Thibetan female is an independent and buxom dame, very unlike her Hindoo sister across the border. Her frame is well-knit and sturdy; she can carry any weight you like on her back. Moreover, there is a jollity about her smile and general deportment which would be very engaging if she made herself a little better acquainted with the wash-bowl. Though she rarely uses dress for ablutionary purposes, the black stains which cover the Thibetan woman's face are not due to dirt. It is custom, said to be founded on a strict law enacted two hundred years ago, for adult females to stain their faces with blotches of a black dye styled nyin. This disfigurement, which originally was ordered for the purpose of subduing the natural attractiveness of the female face to the other sex, forms almost a complete disguise to the countenance. In reality a Thibetan girl's face is most comely and pretty. Before the blackening process her cheeks are as picturesquely ruddy as any Scotch lassie's, and, as the pigment wears off, the ripe wall-fruit glow which the keen mountain air insists on producing is continually to be seen overcoming the sooty patches. Higher-class Thibetan women frequently traverse the streets of L'hassa on small white horses, seated astride the animal's back. They generally have intellectual faces, and are often in truth highly educated and learned. Every better-class female in the streets of L'hassa wears a head-dress called a pa-tuk, not unlike an old-fashioned English traveling cap, with long, turned-down ear flaps. This is often studded with turquois and pieces of coral; sometimes, in the case of a wife of a State Chancellor (Kalon), with emeralds, rubies and pearls. Its use is very ancient. Another characteristic part of the women's dress is the bib or breast cover, styled pagden.—Nineteenth Century.

HIS LITTLE MAJESTY.

Some Pleasant Stories About the Baby King of Spain.

It would probably be hotly disputed by millions of indignant households if one should say that the little three-year-old King of Spain is the best-beloved baby under the eye of public notice, but of a certainty he is the most widely known. All his sayings and doings are sufficiently interesting to be put in print, and those who love babies smile as they read, and declare, with gracious tolerance, that he is "almost as nice a baby as ours."

The little King has had a nappy summer at San Sebastian, where he enjoys more freedom than at Madrid. Every morning at eight o'clock he steps out on the balcony of the royal chateau, where crowds of children wait for him to appear. Many of them he knows by name, and, leaning over the railing, he carries on the quaintest and most familiar of conversations with them all. Presently a little tap is heard on the window and his Majesty retires, crying: "Adios au revoir! I must go. Mamma is waiting for me."

Shortly after he appears on the sands, where he digs and paddles to his heart's content. When he goes out to drive the royal halberdiers range themselves on either side the stairs and, as soon as he is seated, he turns to their chief, saying, gravely, as he has been instructed: "Let them retire."

Evidently young royalty is prone to forget the restrictions of time and place as completely as children are not bound about by ceremony.

General Juan de Cordova is a great favorite of the little King, who addresses him familiarly as "Juanito" (little John). One day while seated beside his mother at mass his Majesty caught sight of this friend kneeling in the nave of the cathedral, and at once, amid one of the solemn pauses, he began to shout with great glee: "Hello, there, Juanito! Hello, there, Juanito! Juanito!"

It was only with great difficulty that the Queen and his governess could reduce this enthusiastic little partisan to silence.—Youth's Companion.

Libraries for War Vessels.

The purchase of libraries for ten new ships of the navy has been ordered for the use of the enlisted men on board. About three hundred volumes in all will be placed on each ship. About eight years ago the usual naval ship's library consisted of a Bible, a prayer-book, an almanac, a dictionary and one or two works on navigation—not more than half a dozen. But since Acting Rear-Admiral Walker has been at the head of the Bureau of Navigation, he has taken pains to have suitable additions made to these, until now a ship's library contains from one thousand to fifteen hundred valuable volumes. The new libraries are for the most part composed of the best grade of novels—Scott, Thackeray, Dickens and others—and various miscellaneous works, and are intended for the entertainment of the men in the fore-castle when off duty.—Demorest's Monthly.

When Young Men Propose.

To most men a woman engaged with a needle has a domestic, home-like air that is almost irresistible. How can a man propose to a girl who sits straight up in a chair staring hard at him with a pair of bright eyes? But when she is bending gracefully over a bit of plain or fancy sewing, apparently absorbed in counting the stitches, and the arrows of her eyes are sheathed for a few minutes, he plucks up courage enough to offer her his heart and hand. The average young man is bashful in such affairs, though bold enough at other times, and needs encouragement and opportunities. What sort of encouragement is a pair of bright eyes staring into his, watching his embarrassment?—Louisville Courier-Journal.

An Interesting Feat.

St. Stephen's Review says an interesting feat had just been accomplished by Hon. Ralph Abernethy, who has succeeded in measuring the height of ocean waves by floating a sensitive aneroid barometer on the surface, and in gauging their width and velocity by timing their passages with a chronograph. As a result of these experiments he states that Admiral Fitzroy in the conclusion that waves occasionally reach an altitude of sixty feet. The highest wave measured by Mr. Abernethy was forty-six feet high, 765 feet from crest to crest, and had a velocity of forty-seven miles per hour.

Advertising in Paris.

The latest development of the advertising art comes from Paris, where an enterprising publisher has employed a large corps of sandwich men to advertise a book by walking down the boulevards and reading it with rapid attention. An inquisitive gentleman, anxious to know how far this would have an educational effect upon the readers, crept up behind one who seemed more rapt than all the others, and found—that he was reading the book upside-down.
